

Case study

Rural and agriculture sector

Our aim is to provide you with draft accounts within 30 days.

Our agriculture team have a genuine knowledge of the sector and the relevant experience to help you. In addition, we have a thorough understanding of the day to day issues faced by farming businesses. We want you to know that your accounting and tax affairs are in order and that you can call on us for whatever additional support you may need.

FROM THE START

When you come to us as a new client we take the time to make sure we understand your present situation and your plans for the future. By understanding your rural business and what is important to you we can offer a tailored package and provide you with the service you want.

THE PROCESS

Our agricultural team are experienced with both manual records and computerised bookkeeping systems. From cashbooks to excel spread sheets, from Farmplan to Landmark Key Accounts, SUM IT and Sage our understanding of the systems used by you makes the accounts production process run like clockwork.

We have the software package you use in all our offices so we simply take a back-up and restore it on our system. This way we can get the information we need to prepare your accounts and all without troubling you!

A TIMELY RESPONSE

Our aim is to provide you with draft accounts within 30 days of receiving the records.

We know how important this is for agricultural and rural businesses. In a continually changing industry, that also faces the pressures of the unpredictable English weather, having your accounts finalised allows time to take stock of the last year, develop budgets for next year and plan for the future.

A HELPING HAND

We offer you the support to make your business a success. After the accounts preparation process has finished we are on hand to help with tax planning, succession planning, budgets and business planning. Whether you want to diversify or would like to improve your margins we will work alongside you to make it happen.
